
1 Timothy 3:2-5 NLT

So a (spiritual leader) must be a man whose life is above reproach. He must be faithful to his wife. He must exercise self-control, live wisely, and have a good reputation ... 4 He must manage his own family well, having children who respect and obey him. 5 For if a man cannot manage his own household, how can he take care of God's church?

What are some of the different ways – correct and incorrect – that we measure the spiritual maturity of others?

What does this passage say about the connection between who a person is at home and his/her spiritual maturity in Christ?

What does this passage say about the importance of how we treat one another at home?

Do you think Bible knowledge is more important to God or working hard to have a good marriage? Explain.
